

The Daily Courant.

Monday, October 13. 1707.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 18

Venice, September 30.

WE have Advice from Turkey, that the Grand Signior amasses together great Sums of Money and makes some Preparations for War; but in what View is not known: That all Commotions are suppress'd at Constantinople; but that the Ottoman Court are apprehensive of new Disturbances, because the Bassa of Grand Cairo whom the Sultan had order'd to be Strangled, had made his Escape; and being a Man of a daring Heart and subtle Head, would probably excite a Rebellion in Asia.

From the Amst. Cour. and Gaz. dated Oct. 18.

Vienna, Oct. 5. 'Tis Advis'd from Upper Hungary, that General Ozkay is posted with a Body of Malecontents at Neusol, waiting for Count Caroli, in Order to Act in Conjunction with him against Count Staremberg who has block'd up Neitra and Newheusel. C. Francis Nadafti Governour of Edenburg, having Notice a Detachment of Malecontents was come into the Neighbourhood of that Place to disturb the Vintage, sent out 500 Men who were hard engag'd with the Enemy for 5 Hours; and tho' they were 5000 in Number, put them to Flight after they had kill'd 400 of them, 'Tis now thought, that the Princess of Wolfemburzel will not be declar'd here Bride of King Charles III. and Queen of Spain, as well for avoiding some Difficulties touching the Ceremonial, as for saving the great Expence this Court would be oblig'd to make on such an Occasion. The Emperour has not yet dispos'd of the Office of Chief Minister, nor of that of Great Master of his Household, vacant by the Resignation of the Prince of Salm, who persists in his Resolution to retire from all publick Business: Prince Anthony of Lichtenstein, who is with King Charles, shewing no Inclination to return to this Court, and desiring rather some Vice-royalty, the two principal Competitors at present for the said Place of chief Minister, are Cardinal Lamberg and Count Wratislaw; and many believe the Cardinal will carry it. The Malecontents of Hungary do not appear dispos'd to proceed yet to the Election of a new King.

Berlin, Oct. 11. Letters from Poland tell us, that the Swedish Troops were advancing towards Warsaw; but that the Muscovites gave out they would with the Assistance of the Army of the Crown dispute the Passage of the Vistula: The Field-Marshal of that Army, instead of being inclin'd to declare for King Stanislaus, as was rumour'd, had given new Assurances of adhering firmly to the Czar and the Republick. General Ribinski with his Troops, whom the King of Sweden thought to cut off at Thorn, has joyn'd the Crown-Army. These Advices left the King of Sweden at Posen.

Hambourg, Oct. 14. By Letters from Poland 'tis advis'd, that the Muscovites having finish'd 2 Bridges over the Vistula have begun a 3d: They intrench themselves on the side of that River, and give out that with an Army of 40000 Men they will dispute the Passage of the Swedes. The King of Sweden had extended his Army from Sloupzee to Piskri, and 'twas not known when he would break up from thence. In the mean while the Muscovites lay waste and burn all in Poland, to deprive the Swedes of Substinance. They have demanded of the City of Warsaw 200000 Rixdollars; and of a small Suburbs mostly belonging to King Stanislaus 1000; to be brought in within 3 Days. Some Letters from Thorn, say General Leuwenhaupt had defeated a Party of Muscovites, and that the Czar had caus'd M. Siniawski Field-Marshal of the Crown to be put under Arrest.

Warsaw, Oct. 4. The Bridges laid by the Muscovites over the Vistula are quite finish'd; above 25000 Muscovite Horse are encamp'd about this City and Blonia, and 12000 Foot are expected from Brzeze, after the Junction of which 'tis propos'd to stand the Swedes. The Czar is at Wilda, making Preparations against General Leuwenhaupt. Most of the Swedish Troops are encamp'd about Kalisch.

From the Leid. and Amst. Gaz. dated Oct. 18.

Warsaw, Oct. 4. To Day came Advice, that the King of Sweden had pass'd the River Warthe at Piskri, with an Army of 40000 Men, and that on his Approach the Muscovite General Henske retir'd from Lowitz: Upon this Prince Menzikoff call'd a Council of War in this City; and 'tis said, the Result was, that if the 25000 Horse in these Parts are joyn'd in Time by the 12000 Foot expected from Brzeze, the Passage of the Vistula shall be disputed with the Swedes, if they advance this Way; but that if they bend their March towards Thorn, other Measures shall be taken; and in Case it be found necessary for the Muscovites to retire, then they shall march to Slurks in Lithuania, where the Czar's Privy Council and Chancery are to have their Residence this Winter. The Council at Lublin, is agen Prorog'd; 'tis said, the Primate of the Kingdom propos'd to the Nobility and Senators who compos'd that Assembly, to transfer it hither; and to publish here Universalia summoning the Pospolite Ruffenie, which is the Ban and Arriere-Ban of the Kingdom and of the Great Duchy of Lithuania, to arm and make their Appearance; but the Swedes advancing, 'tis suppos'd that Project is fall'n to the Ground.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Oct. 18.

Amsterdam, Octob. 17. They write from Genoa, that a Catalonian Bark was arriv'd there in 5 Days from Palamos; and that the Master confirm'd, that the French and Spanish Army having invest'd Lerida, were fall'n upon by the Earl of Galloway, and 1000 of them being kill'd or taken, the rest were forc'd to retire and to leave some Cannon and Baggage behind them.

Hague, Octob. 18. 'The States have newly writ'ten to the King of Prussia and to the Prince of Nassau-Friseland, to exhort them to come to an Accommodation on the Succession of the House of Orange, now that the Prince being of Age can dispose of his own Affairs as he sees good. Their Answers are expected. The Resident of the Hans-Towns, seeks to engage some General Officer of the Allies to go and be Governour of Danzick. They write from the Upper-Rhine, that the Repartition of Winter Quarters for the Army of the Empire is agreed; and that to the end the Troops may be at hand to draw together at a short Warning on Occasion, these Quarters are appointed to be in the 4 nearest adjoining Circles to that Part of the Rhine. 'Tis advis'd from Berlin the 11th, that the 9th being Sunday, the King of Prussia as he was coming out of Church commanded M. Amerar, one of his Ministers of State, to be seiz'd and carry'd to the Castle of Spandau; which was done immediately. The Cause of this Minister's Disgrace is variously reported; some say, it was taking Bribes of those that had Occasion to present Petitions to the King.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Monday, being the 13th of October, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Recruiting Officer. All the Parts being perform'd to the best Advantage by the whole Company.

B. W. Aged 17, of low Stature, strong built, with straight Flaxen Hair, wearing a light Druggist Coat and Waistcoat, went away from the Red-Lyon-Inn at Aldergate on the 13th of September last, and has not been heard of since; if he will return to his Friends he shall be kindly receiv'd, and gratify'd according to his Inclinations: And whoever will give notice of him to Mrs. Man at Young Man's Coffee-house, Charing-Cross, shall be very well rewarded.

There being an Advertisement in the Daily Courant of Monday October the 6th 1707, in these words, 'Whereas Dr. Hicks in the 207th Page of his Preface to a late Book concerning the Christian Priesthood, [which Preface is an Answer to the Rights of the Christian Church] calls upon the Right Reverend Bishop of Sarum for an Answer to a Pamphlet written against his Lordship's Exposition of the 23d Article of the Church of England, as if no Answer had been given. It is thought requisite to publish the Doctor's VVords, by which it will appear that they did not imply that no Answer had been given to the Vindication of the 23d Article against the Bishop's Exposition, but that his Lordship had not publish'd any Reply to it: And that the printed Reply, to which the Advertiser refers, is neither a just nor full one. The Doctor's VVords are as followeth. '3dly, Because his [the Bishop's] Exposition on the said Article, which my Adversary cites, hath receiv'd at least one Answer, to which with submission to his Lordship, and with all due respect to him, I think he stands still indebted for a just and full Reply. And whereas the Advertiser saith, It is a very full Answer: I let the Author know, that in due time, by God's Assistance, a Reply will be made to his Defence of the Bishop's Exposition. In which it will appear that his Reply to the Vindication of the 23d Article against his Lordship's Exposition, is neither just nor full, as the Advertiser affirms.

The most excellent Tablets of a delightful Flavour and Taste, one of which at a time being only chew'd or held in the Mouth, rowling it about with the Tongue, wonderfully (without the least offence or hindrance of business) purges the Head and Brain, curing all the Diseases thereof, by evacuating the Rheum or Humours, by moderate Spitting, that cause them, when all inward Medicines, Blisters, Issues, Scatons, &c. are ineffectual. In Rheumatisms, Gouts, Anger, Evil, Leprosies, Red and Pimply Faces, Itchings, Scabs, &c. they are strangely effectual, sweetening the Blood, creating an Appetite, &c. One of them used as above id for an hour or two, will discharge near a Pint of Rheum, which continued may save the trouble and serve for the same end and better than Salivation in many cases (they being without the least grain of Mercury) and by spitting out at any time the Tablet (which never sticks to the Mouth or Teeth) the Flux immediately ceases, being very harmless and as small (only flattish) as Peas, leaving the Mouth moist, cool and refresh'd. Are to be had only at Mr. Varenne's, a Bookfeller, at Seneca's Head near Somerset-House in the Strand, at 3 s. 6 d. the Box, with Directions.

The Royal Chymical Wash-Ball for the Hands and Face, largely experienc'd and daily commended by all that use them; and that for making the Skin so delicately soft and smooth, as not to be parallel'd by either Wash, Powder, Cosmectick, &c. it is indeed a real Beautifier of the Skin, by taking off all Deformities, as Tetter, Ring-worms, Morpew, Sun-burn, Scurf, Pimples, Pitts or Redness of the Small-pox, &c. keeping it of a lasting and extreme Whiteness, it soon alters red or rough Hands, and is admirable in Shaving the Head, which not only gives a more exquisite sharpness to the Razor, but so comforts the Brain and Nerves, as to prevent catching Cold, and is of a grateful and pleasant Scent, without the least Grain of Mercury. Is sold only by Mr. Allnut, Glover, the corner of Popes-Head-Alley against the Royal Exchange, and at Mrs. Gile's, Millener and Toyshop next Hercules-Pillar-Ally. by the Temple, at 1 s. each, with printed Directions at large.
